

Hail, how is the day today ? Ready with the ultimate assault ?
I'm so tired because yesterday I was playing a gig with my other band Alcoholizer...but I'm always ready ! ahahaha !

First of all, could you briefly introduce NECRO MESSIAH to readers ? It seems the band was born from ashes of Black Metal combo Frozen Darkness, isn't it ? Thence why did you choose to play a much more Thrash Metal music ?

NECRO MESSIAH was born in winter 2002 when we started to play our songs the only difference with Frozen Darkness is this...We have Thrash influences also in our first works if you listen closely our old songs, we were and we are early Thrash Metal fans !

How did you discover Heavy Metal and extreme Metal ? What were the early combos you listened to ? Could you speak about your Metal background ?

I discover it when I was 10 years old from my father and next I've grown it with some friends...I listened first to Led Zeppelin, Black Sabbath, Motorhead, Uriah Heep, Iron Maiden, Def Leppard, Judas Priest and more....then I discover all the Thrash, Death and Black Metal bands. I can't do a list, I have to write one thousand lines to list them...ehehehe !

You seem rather young in the band, I mean you were babies when the 80's Thrash Metal scene was at its top and combos such as Sodom, Whiplash, Exciter, Razor, Toxik, Kreator, Messiah, Celtic Frost were ruling the scene, so how is your regard to this scene you've never been part of ?

I have a total respect for that scene, there is too much different from today so you have list some of my favourite bands in your question. I listen just to old Metal music, I haven't new bands to discover today, my music is dead ten years ago or more.

I've to admit that "Antiklerikal Terroristik Death Squad" astonished me a lot as it sounds like a mix between Gospel Of The Horns and rectro 80's Thrash Metal. Not many Italian bands play this kind of music actually, so how do you fit in the Italian scene ?

We've receive a very good response from Italian zines and Metal maniacs so I think that here in Sardinia and Italy our music is appreciated.

I guess that Bulldozer might have been a huge influence for you as they came from your country and played satanic Thrash Metal à la Venom/Motörhead, don't they ? What are your favourite tunes and album from Bulldozer and have you ever seen them live ?

I'm too young for having seen them in live but I like this band. My favourite album is absolutely "Neurodelirio".

Tunes like "Terror Squad" or "Evil Prophets" are obviously influenced by early Kreator, the ultra fast Thrashing guitar lines remind a lot the German combo and the structure of these tunes are ultra classic in the 80's Thrash scene, thence I guess that these tunes might be killer live, have you ever played them during gig ?

Yes...these songs cause headbanging during our gigs ehehehe !

You've really the perfect sound in your latest production. The guitar gain is fucking sharp, the drum is really pondering, this production is both modern and old school. How long did you spend finding this sound and what gear do you use ? Are you satisfied with the result by the way ?

Yes I'm very satisfied by this result but our sound will be change in all our new works, more raw and modern as you talk at the same time ! We spent just 3 months for record it, no more time.

Who did the cover of "Antiklerikal Terroristik Death Squad" ? The black and white drawing reminds me a lot Chris Moyon, I guess you might be fan of his art ?

Yeah !!! I've think at that image and next I've contact Silke of BUP productions for speak with Moyon about this cover, it's really apocalyptic. We were thinking to do a cover with him when we started to play, he's my favourite Metal designer !!!

How does it come you signed with Blasphemous

NECRO MESSIAH is the new finding from Blasphemous Underground's label. The rectro Thrash Metal combo from Italy that has brilliantly mixed old school influences from Sodom/Kreator with a more modern Gospel Of The Horns' like touch. Their "Antiklerikal Terroristik Death Squad" is a strong piece of headbanging Underground productions from France as they're more black Metal oriented ? How many album is the deal about ?

At the moment is about 1000 copies. In the future we will see if it will be reprinted. We signed with them because Silke liked very much our approach to music...the better way to sign I think no ?

NECRO MESSIAH have many satanic references through the logo, lyrics and song titles. How do you consider religion and what do you blame of religious people ?

I hate that people had to believe in another god represented by another man like them. I believe that people can believe in themselves and not in the shitty business called religions ! Our lyrics are ironic and ignorant blasphemies because we want to joke and at the same time dispose that people.

Let's keep on this topic, since his early existence man has always believed in a powerful force, a divinity. Even prehistoric men drew images of their divinity, then being christianity, paganism, Egyptian gods or any other forms of religions it seems that humanity is trapped under his primal fear and want to go through the end of his life. How do you view your own evolution and death ? Do you believe in a resurrection or life after death ?

I believe that there are invisible energies but we can't define them and we can't know nothing about our life or death, and it is uncertain beyond the death. I don't know who or what there is after the death.

As your band name contains the word "Messiah" which was an extremely great combo at their early days, I was wondering if there was any connection between your band name and the Swiss one ?

No any connections...I like this old combo but our band name hasn't nothing to do with them.

It's ubiquitous that your logo is heavily influenced from Necrodeath's logo. The shape of letters and inverted cross are very similar, I guess it was done willingly ?

Aahhahaha I have never seen that similitude...I drew that logo during a lesson when I was 15 years old ahahaha. I wasn't influenced by Necrodeath's logo to do it I guess ! Ahahahaha !

Your web site states that you are member of C.D.I. I've been to the link but couldn't understand anything as it's written in Italian, so could you explain us the concept of CDI ?

C.D.I. in English is : Brotherhood of the funnel. It's our crew of alcoholized Metal maniac.

Thanks a lot for your time, let's close this interview giving us the very freshest news from NECRO MESSIAH....
